

YOUR MOVEMBER FUNDRAISING GUIDE

WELCOME ABOARD

It's been another big year for humanity, and the world continues to change. But a lot of things stay the same: men's health is still in crisis. Men are still dying too young. It doesn't have to be like this. Mental health and suicide prevention, prostate cancer and testicular cancer – we're taking them all on. With your help.

We're stoked to have you with us this Movember – champion of the mighty Mo, an inspiring innovator, a fired-up change agent. Your mission is to raise much-needed funds and awareness to help fuel our innovative men's health projects, and make a real difference in the lives of real men across the world.

This guide has everything you need to get started, but don't hesitate to get in touch if you have any questions or need a helping hand.

SAFETY FIRST

In light of the wild year we've had and as we gear up for Movember, there are a few important things to keep in mind.

Physical distancing restrictions vary from place to place. As you start to plan your events, please always adhere to your governing health body's COVID-19 advice.

These pages are packed with ideas and suggestions, but it's up to you to interpret them in a way that's safe, fun and in line with official advice in your local area. That might mean putting a virtual spin on your trivia night or holding a Shave Down shindig via Zoom.

Whatever you do, it'll be awesome, so get creative, keep safety in mind and go hard this Movember.

From the entire crew at Movember, thanks for getting involved, and Mo on.

LET'S CHANGE THE FACE OF MEN'S HEALTH

Meet the men whose lives you're changing.

"I'm more determined than ever to never take a day for granted."

"After finding an abnormality during a self-examination, my wife encouraged me to see a doctor. The first doctor I saw told me I was fine, but something still didn't feel right. I followed my instincts and insisted on an ultrasound. After the ultrasound, another doctor's opinion and a specialist, I was diagnosed with testicular cancer, and quickly taken into surgery.

I was only 30 years old, fit and healthy with no prior medical conditions. It was a stark reminder to my family and friends that anyone can get cancer at any time.

I still go back to the hospital regularly for check-ups, but I feel fitter and stronger than ever. It has definitely strengthened the relationships I have with my dad and two brothers – to the point where we are having more in-depth conversations, not only about physical health but mental health as well.

My experience reinforced in my mind how quickly life can change, and I'm more determined than ever to never take a day for granted."

A relevant, reliable, straight-talking source of information to ease uncertainty and equip men with what they need to feel calm and informed. Nuts & Bolts' mission it to ensure every guy going through testicular cancer knows they're not alone, and that they have every chance of getting back to living a happy, healthy and long life.

YOUR 60 MILE CHALLENGE

Commit to running or walking 60 miles over the month. That's 60 miles for the 60 men we lose to suicide each hour, every hour across the world – the men who should still be here today.

You don't have to be an ultra-athlete or own the latest kicks. Move is simpler than that. Put one foot in front of the other, and you've already made a start.

GET READY

Connect your fitness app to your Mo Space to log every step. Don't have one? Use your phone or post updates manually on your Mo Space.

CHIP AWAY, YOUR WAY

Hit it fast. Take it slow. Run solo. Join a team. Go outside. Enjoy yourself.

MAKE IT COUNT

Seize every opportunity to kick-start important conversations about men's health.

HOST

YOUR MO-MENT TO MAKE AN IMPACT

Rally a crew and do something fun. We call this Hosting a Mo-moment. Simple is best – whatever floats your boat and inspires donations.

CHOOSE YOUR MO-MENT

Whether it's in-person or virtual, the type of get-together is completely up to you.

SHOUT IT OUT

Invite all your family and friends to join you.

MAKE IT COUNT

Collect donations from attendees.

MO-MENTS WORTH HOSTING

Virtual trivia night

Scavenger hunt

A Shave Down – a Movember-style group shave-off of facial hair (even virtually) to kick off the month.

MO YOUR OWN WAY

Whether it's a gruelling test of physical endurance or a not-so-sweaty pledge to kick a bad habit. Whether it's a day, over several weeks or across the year – take whatever Mo Your Own Way means to you and run with it.

A choose-your-own-adventure challenge epic in scope and scale. The sky's the limit, but here are some ideas to get you thinking:

- Set your sights on breaking a world record.
- Leverage a milestone event to drum up funds (think birthday, graduation, anniversary etc.)
- Wear abanana suit every time you leave the housefor the length of Movember.
- Create a wild hybrid of challenges.

Think big and go bigger. Mo Your Own Way means you make the rules.

For detailed instructions, go to link.movember.com/mo-fundraiser

BOOST YOUR FUNDRAISING

Use incentives

Incentives are a powerful way to motivate friends, family and colleagues to donate. Offer small incentives for a certain donation amount or something big if you hit your goal for the month.

Tell your story

Make sure people know why men's health is important to you. The more you share of your personal story, the more likely people will be to support you.

AT WORK

Gift matching

Lots of workplaces support fundraising efforts by matching their employees' fundraising total (up to a certain amount).

To learn more, go to link.movember.com/mo-matched

HOT TIP:

Mo Bros and Mo Sisters who used a Facebook Fundraiser in 2020 saw their totals skyrocket.

TOOLS 'N TIPS

MAKE A FINAL CALL OUT
